Interest in Tonight's Match. Great interest is being shown in the his evening. Those who saw the last eatch between Ed Lemarre, the Cana-lion middleweight champion, and Jim Sarnes of Springfield, the American Barnes of Springfield, the American middleweight champion, are of the opinion that tonight's match will be the best of them all. Both men are in the shape and LeBarre, who has dally been working out in the club's rooms since Thursday, is surely in far better condition, and gives every indication hat he will furnish Barnes a few surprises this evening. LeBarre has made a number of staunch friends during his brief stay in this city, and will endeavor to show them that their good opinions are not mispiaced.

ons are not misplaced. Barnes has always been liked here Issues has always been liked here mee his initial appearance, and the lot that he has always wrestled a cood, fast, clean match has endeared im to the sports of this yicinity more han any other one thing.
